

shelfstore ≡

Upright holes

When viewing an upright, shelf support holes are offset to the left of centre on each upright pole.

Note: The groove under the shelf is longer than the shelf support, this allows for the difference in hole position between the front and back of an upright.

See diagrams above.

See video here -> <https://vimeo.com/519933745>